Meet the Team

People Dedicated to Your Success

The Development Company is led by a vision to ‘develop potential’ and since its establishment has supported a range of individuals and organisations by offering innovative learning and development solutions. These solutions are specifically designed to make a measurable difference and achieve optimum results.

Training is delivered by Learning & Development Consultants that are supported by a dedicated administration team.

The consultants are responsible for assessing and understanding the clients needs and delivering the training in a style that is appropriate to the audience.

The administration team is responsible for diary management, courseware preparation, production of workbooks and after course feedback and evaluation reports.
