BACK Tailor Made to Meet Specific Requirements

A User's Experience

My first experience of The Development Company was when I was the Advanced Development Programme Manager at Kent County Council in 2002.

The programme was designed for the development of competent and business oriented leaders.

The tailor made responses to our specific organisational requirements were refreshingly innovative, highly impacting, and lastingly effective.

The programme has been repeated a number of times and the council continues to use The Development Company for Assessment Centres and other skills development activities.

The Development Company really does treat each client as an individual; you receive a bespoke service without having to even ask.
